

Bruce Lindsay

Los Angeles, CA | Mobile #301-385-0689 | bruce.d.lindsay@gmail.com

Designer & Fabricator with several decades of experience provides detail and deadline oriented creative & organizational skills. Well rounded and reliable team player with management, professional design assistant, and individual entrepreneurship background. A reliable artisan with exceptional communication and teaching abilities, outstanding attention to detail, and great individual initiative who excels at working harmoniously in a fast paced environment. Expertise in managing creative fabrication shops with many ongoing simultaneous projects.

Experience

JERDE Partnership LLC, Los Angeles CA – Model Shop & Facility Manager - 7/2018 to 1/2022

- Operated and maintained equipment including a resin and powder 3D printers, X-Carve CNC, Universal Laser Cutter, Sawstop Table Saw, as well as several shop and hand tools
- Interviewed and supervised assistant model makers
- Introduced new materials, tools, and efficient building methods
- Created several design study, competition, presentation and display models of mixed-use development models in a variety of mediums
- Purchased and maintained all shop supplies

Electric Candy Couture, San Francisco, CA – Owner & Operator – 10/2013 to Present

- Designing and producing innovative, laser cut wearable art
- Fabrication, shipping, and record keeping of all products and sales
- Sourcing and purchasing all required supplies
- Graphic Design of website and all online sales and promotions including Etsy, Facebook, and Instagram pages
- Managing vending events by coordinating travel, booth displays, and direct customer sales

Ralph Appelbaum Associates, Inc. New York, NY – Model Shop & Facility Manager - 5/2010 to 11/2012

- Created several design study, competition, and presentation models
- Oversaw and maintained equipment including a Trotec Laser Cutter and Sawstop Table Saw, as well as several printers and power tools
- Hired and supervised freelance model makers
- Introduced new materials, tools, and efficient building methods

Robert A.M. Stern Architects, LLP, New York, NY – Model Shop Department Manager - 8/2005 to 5/2009

- Supervised work on multiple concurrent and ongoing projects and prioritized team efforts
- Designed and maintained several shop areas
- Hired, trained and managed professional model makers, junior architects, interns, and contractors
- Created model-building educational program for architecture staff
- Introduced new materials, tools, and efficient building methods
- Purchased all supplies and billed projects accordingly

SKILLS

Software: AutoCAD, Rhino, Adobe CS, Sketchup, MS Office, Apple OS, Google Drive, VectorWorks,

Equipment: Various Laser Systems, 3D Printers, Power & Hand Tools and large format printers;
Experience with Shop-bot and x-carve CNC systems, Vacuum Forming, and Casting.

Creative: Model Building, Carpentry, Sculpting, Drawing & Illustration, and Scenic & Costume Design,
Painting: Scenic, Faux Finishes, Fine Miniature Detail

Management: Experience hiring professional fabricators, OSHA compliant shop design,
Project Managing multiple simultaneous fabrication projects

EDUCATION

University of Maryland, College Park, MD, B.F.A., Theatre Design and Technology
EEI Communications, Silver Spring, MD, Specialist Certificate in Adobe Photoshop